For ready reference, it is stated that GAIL (India) Ltd. had presented a complaint under Section 44 of the PNGRB Act regarding contravention of the directions as were issued by the Board vide order dated 12.4.2013 and 20.9.2013.

The matter was heard by the Board and on hearing the parties on 27.1.2014, GAIL (India) Ltd. was required to submit the details of the outstanding amount till 12.4.2013 and the opposite parties were required to submit the details of account including the details of bank wherein their accounts were being maintained.

The idea behind the said order was to arrive at some logical conclusion and to dispose off the application of GAIL (India) Ltd. in proper perspective.

It is also relevant to mention that the said information was to be furnished by the parties on or before 12.2.2014 but nothing has been furnished by them till date.

In absence of having the said information, the application of GAIL (India) Ltd. under Section 44 of the PNGRB Act cannot be effectively disposed off and the parties are not coming forward to furnish the information, they have rather disobeyed the Board’s order dated 27.1.2014.

In view of above, the complaint of GAIL (India) Ltd. under Section 44 is liable to be dismissed in non-prosecution.
