SECTION I: INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS (ITB)

Introduction

Petroleum & Natural Gas Regulatory Board (PNGRB) was constituted under “The Petroleum & Natural Gas Regulatory Board Act, 2006”. The prime objective of its existence is to regulate the refining, processing, storage, transportation, distribution, marketing and sale of Petroleum, Petroleum Products and Natural Gas, so as to protect specified activities relating to natural gas and to ensure uninterrupted and adequate supply of natural gas, in all parts of the country and to promote competitive markets and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

Many activities of the Board relating to the authorization/ registration or monitoring requires spatial data information for which the Board requires GIS mapping of PNGRB authorized geographical areas, natural gas pipelines and petroleum & petroleum product pipelines on political map of India on an interactive application-based interface. Sealed bids are invited by Petroleum & Natural Gas Regulatory Board (PNGRB), 1st Floor, World Trade Centre, Babar Road, New Delhi -11 0001 from the parties, namely, Samvridhhi Infotech Private Limited, M.L. - 17.1. It is proposed to award a contract for providing an application based interactive political map of India featuring all the 229 Geographical Areas along with their charge areas, all the Natural gas Pipelines and all the Petroleum and Petroleum Product Pipeline authorized by PNGRB till date. The detailed scope of work includes:
- a. The interactive political map of India shall be an application-based interface, which must be accessible on two systems at PNGRB. It shall be geo-referenced on the latest political map of India and shall display the followings:
    - i. GA boundary of all the 229 GAs along with their charge areas as authorized by PNGRB till date.
    - ii. All the Natural Gas Pipelines and Petroleum & Petroleum Pipelines authorized by PNGRB till date.
    - iii. Proposed GAs, NGPLs and PPPLs, as may be proposed by PNGRB in future, shall be updated in the said interactive map as soon as these proposed GAs, NGPLs and PPPLs are authorized by PNGRB.
  - b. The interactive map shall have all the standard mapping tools like pan and zoom feature linked to a real time distance scale. The interface shall have the option to visualize multiple specific layers as specified below:
    - i. A layer for the State/Union Territory boundaries showing the district boundaries within and the Tehsil/Taluka/Mandal boundaries therein as per the latest political map of India published after November 2019, to be sourced from the official government source. All major cities/ towns/ villages along with the district headquarters to be shown under separate tags.
    - ii. A layer for the GA boundaries along with the boundary of its districts and the charge areas within, as authorized by PNGRB for all the 229 GAs till date.
    - iii. A layer for all the Natural Gas Pipelines and Petroleum & Petroleum Product Pipeline authorized by PNGRB / Government of India till date.
    - iv. A layer for Airports, Rail routes, Expressways, National Highways, State Highways and major roads and area segments such as residential, commercial, industrial, forest land/green areas to be indicated with their names. Additional landmarks, places of importance such as Police Stations, Hospitals shall be identified and shown.
    - v. A layer for natural features showing terrain details of hilly areas, mountain peaks, rivers and lakes or other water bodies.
    - vi. Complete geo-referencing has to be provided in the maps with standard cartographic symbology and colors. The accuracy level of the maps at this level shall be within 20 meters.
  - c. Vendors need to provide options for filtering the data on specific attributes of PNGRB requirement. Filtering options must include the following:

- i. Pipeline by route name
  - ii. Pipeline passing through State
  - iii. Places by associated route name
  - iv. Pipelines by associated name like PPP, NGP, CGD.
  - v. GA Maps by state, authorized entities
- 17.2. PNGRB may propose to float bids for authorization for CGD Network in various GAs across India in future. The maps of those proposed GAs shall be updated in this application irrespective of whoever is awarded the contract for preparing the GA maps for those proposed GAs. The details given in 17.1. (b) and 17.1. (c) above shall also be applicable on those proposed GAs without any deviation.
- 17.3. PNGRB may propose to float bids for authorization for various Natural gas Pipeline and Petroleum Product Pipelines across India in future. The route maps of those proposed pipelines shall be updated in this application irrespective of whoever is awarded the contract for preparing the pipeline route maps for those proposed pipelines. The details given in 17.1. (b) and 17.1. (c) above shall also be applicable on those proposed pipelines without any deviation.
- 17.4. Since the extent of work involved includes the total geographical area of India, therefore a lumpsum rate shall be quoted for all the particulars defined in the scope of work.
- 17.5. The vendor shall provide necessary authorization to PNGRB to use the map for its bidding as well as monitoring purposes. This will include adding more information to the maps later on and sharing the maps with other agencies for project implementation and monitoring purposes. No term of such authorization can be in conflict with the terms and conditions of this tender. The vendor shall also indemnify PNGRB from any legal implications arising from use of such maps for aforesaid purposes.
- 17.6. For inputs required by the intending vendor for information regarding the PNGRB authorized GAs, NGPLs and PPPLs, PNGRB has data in various form like shape file format (.shp), pdf in soft and hard copies. These maps may be referred by the intending vendors to understand the quality & details required by PNGRB.
- 17.7. Further, all the PNGRB authorized GAs must have their boundaries on the same scale in this interactive map.
- 17.8. The interactive map shall be editable to an extent so that PNGRB shall be able to edit and customize the maps as per its requirements.

18. Time Schedules:

- 18.1. The time period for final submission for the work at 17.1 shall be 2 weeks from the date of work order.
- 18.2. Any unjustified and unacceptable delay beyond the schedule as per work order will render the vendor liable to pay liquidated damages/ penalty at the rate as mentioned in the Annexure 9 subject to a maximum of 10 % of individual work order value as per GCC.
- 18.3. PNGRB shall have the option to extend the contract at the same rates for a further period of one year with mutual consent of empaneled vendor.

SECTION III: GENERAL CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT (GCC)

19. Award of Contract:

- 19.1. Prior to the expiry of the period of bid validity, PNGRB will notify the successful bidder(s) in writing about acceptance of their bids. The notification of award will constitute the formation of the Contract, as per format at Annexure 10.
- 19.2. A copy of the contract duly signed and stamped on all pages by the successful bidder shall be returned to PNGRB as token of acceptance of the contract.
- 19.3. The successful bidders shall be required to establish an office in Delhi/ NCR region, in case they do not have so for the purposes of regular interactions as shall be required for fulfilling the obligations of the work. No work shall be allotted to the empaneled party in case there is no office presence as stated above.

20. Performance Bank Guarantee

- 20.1. On receipt of the notification of award from PNGRB, the successful Bidder(s) within 7 days from the date of award of contract, shall furnish the Performance Bank Guarantee valid for 30 (thirty) months, i.e. six months beyond the scheduled completion of the contract from a scheduled bank located in India (including an Indian branch of a foreign bank), equivalent to 10% of the total value of the contract in accordance with the conditions of Contract, in the Performance Bank Guarantee (PBG) format prescribed at Annexure 7. The total contract value shall in the beginning be based on work awarded out of present scope of work provided at 17.1. Failure of the successful bidder to comply with the requirement and conditions of the tender/ contract at any stage of work shall constitute a default and sufficient grounds for the annulment of the award, in which case PNGRB may award the contract to the next lowest evaluated bidder or call for new bids at the risk and cost of the successful bidder, besides initiating legal action as per rules/laws and debaring & black listing the vendor for at least 3 years, for further dealing in Govt. departments.
- 20.2. The bank guarantee shall be extended for such further period or periods as may be necessary to cover the defect liability period of 6 months after the actual date of completion of work as per contract in respect of any defective work rendered or re- performed.

21. Sub-contracts

The bidder shall not assign or sub-contract in whole or in part the contract in any manner except with the prior approval of the PNGRB.

22. Publicity & Advertising

The bidder shall not without the written permission of PNGRB make a reference to the contract in any publication, publicity or advertising media.

23. Furnishing Incorrect Information

Upon verification, evaluation/assessment, if in case any information furnished by the bidder is found to be false/incorrect, their total bid shall be summarily rejected and no correspondence on the same, shall be entertained.

24. Termination for Insolvency:

PNGRB may at any time terminate the award order / contract by giving written notice of one week to the Vendor, without any compensation to the Vendor, if the Vendor becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent.

25. Force Majeure:

Force Majeure shall mean and be limited to the following:

- a) War /hostilities
- b) Riots or Civil Commotion
- c) Earthquake, flood, tempest, lightening or other natural physical disasters.
- d) Restrictions imposed by Central Government or other statutory bodies which prevents or delays the execution of obligations under the contracts.

The Authorised Entity shall within one week of occurrence of above causes notify PNGRB about the occurrence of the force majeure event and provide PNGRB all details of arising and ceasing of the impediment. The time and performance of the respective obligations suspended by the force majeure shall stand extended by the period(s) for which such conditions of force majeure last. PNGRB's decision, whether such force majeure conditions did actually exist shall be final and binding.

26. Default:

Default shall be said to have occurred:

- 26.1. If the vendor fails to deliver any or all of the services within the time period(s) specified in the award order or any extension thereof granted by PNGRB.
- 26.2. If the vendor fails to perform any other obligation(s) under the contract
- 26.3. If the vendor, in either of the above circumstances, does not take remedial steps within a period of 7 days after receipt of the default notice from PNGRB (or takes longer period in- spite of what PNGRB may authorize in writing), PNGRB may terminate the contract in whole or in part. In addition to above, PNGRB may at its discretion also take the following actions:

In case the vendor is unable to submit the maps as per the delivery schedules causing delay in subsequent bidding activities by PNGRB, the vendor shall be liable to pay as compensation for the delay caused, penalty as per Annexure 9, subject to a maximum of 10% of the individual work order value. In addition, PNGRB shall also be at liberty to get the work done at the risk and cost of the vendor through any other agency.

27. Arbitration:

- 27.1. In case any dispute or difference arises out of or in connection with or the carrying out of works (whether during the progress of the works or after their completion and whether before or after the termination, abandonment or breach of contract) except as to any of the accepted matters, provided hereunder, the parties hereto, shall first endeavor to settle such disputes of differences amicably.
- 27.2. If the parties fail to reach such amicable settlement, then either party (the Awarder or Vendor) may (within 28 days of such failure) give a written notice to the other party requiring that all matters in dispute or difference be arbitrated upon. Such written notice shall specify the matters which are in difference or differences of which such written notice has been given and no other shall be referred to the arbitration of a single arbitrator, to be appointed by Chairperson, PNGRB. Provisions of Indian Arbitration Act, 1996 or any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof and rules framed there under from time to time shall apply to such arbitration.

- 27.3. Venue and jurisdiction for any essential arbitration shall be New Delhi.
- 27.4. The arbitrator or arbitrators appointed under this Article shall have the option to extend the time to make the award with the consent of parties.
- 27.5. Pending reference to arbitration, the parties shall make all endeavors to complete the work in all respects. Disputes, if any, will finally be settled in the arbitration.
- 27.6. Upon every or any such references to the arbitration, as provided herein the cost of all incidental to the reference and Award respectively shall be at the discretion of the Arbitrator, or the umpire, as the case may be.
- 27.7. The award of Arbitrator or Arbitrators, as the case may be, shall be final and binding on the parties. It is agreed that the Vendor shall not delay the carrying out of the works by reason of any such matter, question or dispute being referred to arbitration, but shall proceed with the works with all due diligence. The Awarder and the Vendor hereby also agree that arbitration under this clause shall be the condition precedent to any right of action under the contract except for as provided for in the Tender.

28. Applicable Law

- 28.1. The Vendor shall be governed by the laws and procedures established by Govt. of India, within the framework of applicable legislation and enactment made from time to time concerning such commercial dealings/processing.
- 28.2. All disputes in this connection shall be settled in Delhi jurisdiction.
