- (1) The Chairperson may appoint any officer of the Board or any other person to represent consumers' interest if considered necessary.
- (2) The Board may direct payment to the officer or person appointed to represent consumers' interests such fees, costs and expenses by such of the parties in the proceedings as the Board may consider appropriate.

CHAPTER II

GENERAL RULES CONCERNING THE PROCEEDINGS BEFORE THE BOARD

- 14. Proceedings, etc. before the Board. – The Board may from time to time hold hearings, meetings, discussions, deliberations, inquiries, investigations and consultations as it may consider appropriate in the discharge of its functions under the Act:

Provided that the meetings of the Board shall be convened in accordance with the Petroleum and Natural Gas Regulatory Board (Meetings of the Board) Regulations, 2007, amended from time to time.

15. Bench to settle disputes. – A Bench consisting of the Member (Legal) and one or more Members nominated by the Chairperson shall decide the disputes under section 24 of the Act, in accordance to the provisions of the Act.
16. Authority to represent. – A person may authorize an advocate or a Member of any statutory professional body holding a Certificate of Practice as the Board may from time to time specify to represent him and act and plead on his behalf before the Board. The person may also appear himself or may authorise any of his employees to appear before the Board and to act and plead on his behalf. The Board may from time to time specify the terms and conditions subject to which a person may authorise any other person to represent him and act and plead on his behalf.
17. Initiation of Proceedings. –
  - (1) The Board may initiate any proceedings suo motu or on a petition or complaint filed by any affected or interested person under the provisions of the Act.
  - (2) The notice of the initiation of the proceedings may be issued by the Board and the Board may give such orders and directions as may be deemed necessary, for service of notices to the affected parties, the filing of reply and rejoinder in opposition or in support of the petition or complaint in such form as it may direct. The Board may, if it considers appropriate, issue orders for publication of the petition or complaint inviting comments on the issues involved in the proceedings in such form as the Board may direct.
  - (3) While issuing the notice of inquiry the Board may, in appropriate cases, authorize an officer of the Board or any other person whom the Board considers appropriate to present the matter in the capacity of the petitioner/complainant in the case.
18. Petitions or complaints and pleadings before the Board. – All petitions or complaints to be filed before the Board shall be typewritten, cyclostyled or printed neatly and legibly on one side of white paper and every page shall be consecutively numbered. The contents of the petition or complaint should be divided appropriately into separate paragraphs, which shall be numbered serially. The petition or complaint shall be accompanied by such documents supporting data and statements as the Board may specify.
19. General headings and form of complaint. – The general heading in all petitions or complaints before the Board and in all publications and notices shall be in Form I. Every petition or complaint shall be as per Form II or as near thereto as may be possible.
20. Affidavit in Support. –

- (1) The petitions or complaints shall be verified by an affidavit and every such affidavit shall be in Form III.
  - (2) Every affidavit shall be drawn up in the first person and shall state the full name, age, occupation and address of the deponent and the capacity in which he is signing and shall be signed and sworn before a person lawfully authorized to take and receive affidavits.
  - (3) Every affidavit shall clearly and separately indicate the statements, which are true to the –
    - (a) knowledge of the deponent;
    - (b) information received by the deponent; and
    - (c) belief of the deponent.
  - (4) Where any statement in the affidavit is stated to be true to the information received by the deponent, the affidavit shall also disclose the source of the information and a statement that the deponent believes that information to be true.
21. Whoever intentionally gives false evidence in any of the proceedings of the Board or fabricates false evidence for the purpose of being used in any of the proceedings shall be punishable in accordance with Section 193 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (45 of 1860).

22. Presentation and scrutiny of the petitions or complaints. –

- (1) All petitions or complaints shall be filed with ten copies and each set of the petition or complaint shall be complete in all respects. The fees as may be prescribed by the Board shall be payable along with the petition or complaint.
- (2) All petitions or complaints shall be presented in person or by any duly authorized agent or representative at the head office or such other filing centre or centers as may be notified by the Board from time to time and during the time notified. The petitions or complaints may also be sent by registered post acknowledgement due to the Board at the places mentioned above. The vakalatnama in favour of the advocate and, in the event the petitions or complaints are presented by an authorised representative, the document authorising the representative shall be filed alongwith the petition or complaint, if not already filed on the record of the case.
- (3) Upon receipt of the petition or complaint, the officer of the Board authorized for the purpose of receiving the petition or complaint, shall acknowledge the receipt by stamping and endorsing the date on which the petition or complaint has been presented and shall issue an acknowledgment with stamp and date to the person filing the petition or complaint. In case the petition or complaint is received by registered post the date on which the petition or complaint is actually received at the office of the Board shall be taken as the date of the presentation of the petition or complaint.

- (4) The presentation and receipt of the petition or complaint shall be duly numbered and entered in the register maintained for the purpose by the office of the Board.
- (5) The receiving officer may decline to accept any petition or complaint which does not conform to the provisions of the Act or the Rules or the Regulations or directions given by the Board or is otherwise defective or which is presented otherwise than in accordance with the regulations or directions of the Board:

Provided that no petition or complaint shall be refused for defect in the pleadings or in the presentation, without giving an opportunity to the person filing the petition or complaint to rectify the defect within the time which may be given for the purpose. The receiving officer shall advise in writing the person filing the petition or complaint of the defects in the petition or complaint filed.

- (6) A person aggrieved by any order of the receiving officer in regard to the presentation of the petition or complaint may request for the matter to be placed before the Secretary of the Board for appropriate orders.
- (7) The Chairperson or any Member as the Chairperson may authorise for the purpose shall be entitled to call for the petition or complaint presented by the party and give such directions regarding the presentation and acceptance of the petition or complaint as he considers appropriate.
- (8) If on scrutiny, the petition or complaint is not refused or any order of refusal is rectified by the Secretary or by the Chairperson or the Member of the Board authorised for the purpose, the petition or complaint shall be duly registered and given a number as specified in sub-clause (4) above.
- (9) As soon as the petition or complaint and all necessary documents are lodged and the defects and objections, if any, are removed, and the petition or complaint has been scrutinised and numbered, the petition or complaint shall be put up before the Board for preliminary hearing and admission.
- (10) The Board may admit the petition or complaint for hearing without requiring the attendance of the party. The Board shall not pass an order refusing admission without giving the party concerned an opportunity of being heard. The Board may, if it considers appropriate, issue notice to such person or persons, as it may desire to hear the petition or complaint for admission. In the case of complaint, the Board shall decide within thirty days whether there is a prima facie case against the entity or entities concerned and may either investigate on its own or refer the matter for investigation, in accordance with the provisions of the Act, to an investigation officer having jurisdiction; and when the matter is referred to such investigating officer, on receipt of report from him, the Board may hear and dispose of the complaint as a dispute in accordance with the provisions of the Act and in other case, it may pass such orders and issue such direction as it deems fit.

- (11) If the Board admits the petition or complaint, it may give such orders and directions, as may be deemed necessary, for service of notices to the respondent(s) and other affected or interested parties, for the filing of replies and rejoinder in opposition or in support of the petition or complaint in such form as the Board may direct and for the petition or complaint to be placed for hearing before the Board or a Bench, as the case may be.

23. Service of notices and processes issued by the Board. –

- (1) Any notice, process or summons to be issued by the Board may be served by any one or more of the following modes as may be directed by the Board:
  - a) through any of the parties to the proceedings as may be directed by the Board;
  - b) by hand delivery through messenger;
  - c) by registered post with acknowledgement due;
  - d) by publication in newspapers in cases where the Board is satisfied that it is not reasonably practicable to serve the notices, processes, etc., on any person in the manner mentioned above;
  - e) in any other manner as considered appropriate by the Board.
- (2) The Board shall be entitled to decide in each case the persons who shall bear the cost of such service or publication.
- (3) Every notice or process required to be served on or delivered to any person may be sent to the person or his agent empowered to accept service at the address furnished by him for service or at the place where the person or his agent ordinarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain.
- (4) In the event any matter is pending before the Board and the person to be served has authorised an agent or representative to appear for or represent him or her in the matter, such agent or representative shall be deemed to be duly empowered to take service of the notices and processes on behalf of the party concerned in all matters and the service on such agent or representative shall be taken as due service on the person to be served.
- (5) Where a notice is served by a party to the proceedings either in person or through registered post, an affidavit of service shall be filed by such party with the Board giving details of the date and manner of service of notices and processes.
- (6) Where any petition or complaint is required to be published it shall be published in such form in the newspapers to be specified, for such duration and within such time as the Board may direct.
- (7) In default of compliance with the requirements of the regulations or directions of the Board as regards the service of notices, summons or processes or the publication thereof, the Board may either dismiss the petition or complaint or give such other or further directions as it thinks fit.

- (8) No service or publication required to be done shall be deemed invalid by reason of any defect in the name or description of a person provided that the Board is satisfied that such service is in other respects sufficient, and no proceedings shall be invalidated by reason of any defect or irregularity unless the Board on an objection taken, is of the opinion that substantial injustice has been caused by such defect or irregularity or there are otherwise sufficient reasons for doing so.

24. Filing or reply, opposition, objections, etc. –

- (1) Each person to whom the notice of inquiry or the petition or complaint is issued (hereinafter called the ‘respondent’) who intends to oppose or support the petition or complaint shall file the reply and the documents relied upon within such period with ten copies. In the reply filed, the respondent shall specifically admit, deny or explain the facts stated in the notice of inquiry or the petition or the complaint and may also state such additional facts as he considers necessary for just decision of the case. The reply shall be signed and verified and supported by affidavit in the same manner as in the case of the petition or complaint.
- (2) The respondent shall serve a copy of the reply along with the documents duly attested to be true copies on the petitioner or complainant or his authorised representative and file proof of such service with the office of the Board.
- (3) Where the respondent states additional facts as may be necessary for the just decision of the case, the Board may allow the petitioner/complainant to file a rejoinder to the reply filed by the respondents. The procedure mentioned above for filing of the reply shall apply mutatis mutandis to the filing of the rejoinder.
- (4) Every person who intends to file objection or comments in regard to a matter pending before the Board, pursuant to the publication made for the purpose (other than the persons to whom notices, processes, etc. have been issued calling for reply) shall deliver to an officer designated by the Board for the purpose the statement of the objection or comments with copies of the documents and evidence in support thereof within the time fixed for the purpose.
- (5) The Board may permit such person or persons including associations, forums and bodies corporate as it may consider appropriate to participate in the proceedings before the Board if, on the report received from the officer, the Board considers that the participation of such person or persons will facilitate the proceedings and the decision in the matter.
- (6) Unless permitted by the Board, the person filing objection or comments shall not necessarily be entitled to participate in the proceedings to make oral submissions. However, the Board shall be entitled to take into account the objections and comments filed after giving such opportunity to the parties to the proceedings as the Board considers appropriate to deal with the objections or comments.

25. Hearing of the matter. –

- (1) The Board may determine the stages, manner, the place, the date and the time of the hearing of the matter, as it considers appropriate.
- (2) The Board may decide the matter on the pleadings of the parties or may call for the parties to produce evidence by way of affidavit or lead oral evidence in the matter.
- (3) If the Board directs evidence of a party to be led by way of oral submission, the Board may, if considered necessary or expedient, grant an opportunity to the other party to cross-examine the persons giving evidence.
- (4) The Board may, if considered necessary or expedient, direct that the evidence of any of the parties be recorded by an officer or person authorised for the purpose by the Chairperson.
- (5) The Board may direct the parties to file written note of arguments or submissions in the matter.

26. Powers of the Board to call for further information, evidence, etc. –

- (1) The Board may, at any time before passing orders on any matter, require the parties or any one or more of them or any other person whom the Board considers appropriate to produce such documentary or other evidence as the Board may consider necessary for the purpose of enabling it to pass orders.
- (2) The Board may direct summoning of the witnesses, discovery and production of any document or other material objects produce-able in evidence, requisition of any public record from any office, examination by an officer of the Board the books, accounts or other documents or information in the custody or control of any person which the Board considers relevant to the matter.
- (3) Whoever intentionally gives false evidence in any of the proceedings of the Board or fabricates false evidence for the purpose of being used in any of the proceedings shall be punishable in accordance with Section 193 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (45 of 1860).
- (4) Whoever intentionally offers any insult or causes any interruption in any of the proceedings of the Board, shall be punishable in accordance with Section 228 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (45 of 1860).

27. Reference of issues to others. –

- (1) At any stage of the proceedings, the Board shall be entitled to refer such issue or issues in the matter as it considers appropriate to persons including, but not limited to, the officers and consultants of the Board whom the Board considers as qualified to give expert advice or opinion.

- (2) The Chairperson may nominate from time to time any person including, but not limited to the officers and consultants to visit any place or places for inspection and report on the existence or status of the place or any facilities therein.
- (3) The Board if it thinks fit, may direct the parties to appear before the persons designated in sub-clause (1) or (2) above to present their respective views on the issues or matters referred to.
- (4) The report or the opinion received from such person shall form a part of the record of the case and the parties shall be given the copies of the report or opinion given by the person designated by the Board. The parties shall be entitled to file their version either in support or in opposition to the report or the opinion.
- (5) The Board shall duly take into account the report or opinion given by the person, the reply filed by the parties while deciding the matter and if considered necessary the examination before the Board of the person giving the report or the opinion.

28. Procedure to be followed where the party does not appear. –

- (1) Where, on the date fixed for hearing or any other date to which such hearing may be adjourned, any of the parties or his authorised agent or representative does not appear when the matter is called for hearing, the Board may, in its discretion, either dismiss the petition or complaint for default when the petitioner/complainant or the person who moves the Board for hearing is in default or proceed ex parte.
- (2) Where a petition or complaint is dismissed in default or decided ex parte, the person aggrieved may file an application within thirty days from the date of such dismissal or being proceeded ex parte, as the case may be, for recall of the order passed, and the Board may recall the order on such terms as it thinks fit, if the Board is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for the non-appearance when the petition or complaint was called for hearing.

29. Orders of the Board. –

- (1) All orders and decisions issued or communicated by the Board shall be certified by the signature of the Secretary or any other officer of the Board empowered in this behalf by the Chairperson and bear the official seal of the Board.
- (2) All final orders of the Board shall be communicated to the parties to the proceedings under the signature of the Secretary or any officer of the Board empowered in this behalf by the Chairperson.

<sup>1</sup>[Provided that every such order or decision communicated to the parties or web-hosted on the website of the Board or communicated to public, will bear the phrase

30. Inspection of records of proceedings and supply of certified copies. –

- (1) Records of every proceedings, except those parts which for reasons specified by the Board are confidential or privileged or otherwise not to be disclosed to any person, shall be open to inspection either during the proceeding or after the orders have been passed, subject to such person complying with such terms as the Board may direct from time to time including in regard to time, place and manner of inspection and payment of fee.
- (2) Any person shall be entitled to obtain certified copies of the orders, decisions, directions and reasons in support thereof given by the Board as well as the pleadings, papers, and other parts of the records of the Board to which he is entitled to inspect on payment of fee under sub-clause (1) above and complying with other terms which the Board may direct.

31. Interim Orders. - The Board may pass such interim orders as the Board may consider appropriate at any stage of the proceedings.

CHAPTER III

SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

32. The settlement of disputes in regard to matters mentioned in Section 24 of the Act may be commenced by the Board on the application of any of the persons concerned.
33. The Board shall issue notice to the concerned person(s) and to such other person(s) as the Board considers appropriate to show cause as to why the dispute should not be settled by the Board.
34. The Board may, after hearing the parties to whom notices have been issued and if satisfied that no reason or cause has been shown against the proposed settlement, pass an order directing that the disputes or the matter be settled by the Board.
35. The procedure for settlement of disputes to be followed by the Board shall be as far as possible the same as in the case of hearing before the Board as provided for in Chapter II above.
36. The cost of the settlement of disputes and proceedings before the Board shall be borne by such parties and in such sums as the Board may direct.

CHAPTER IV

INVESTIGATION, INQUIRY, COLLECTIONS OF INFORMATION, ETC.

37. The Board may make such order or orders as it thinks fit for collection of information, inquiry, investigation, entry, search, seizure, and without prejudice to the generality of its powers in regard to the following provisions.
38. The Board may at any time, direct the Secretary or any one or more officers of the Board or consultants or any other person as the Board considers appropriate to study, investigate or furnish information with respect to any matter within the purview of the Board under the Act.
39. The Board may for the above purpose give such other directions as it may deem fit and specify the time within which the report is to be submitted or information furnished.
40. The Board may issue or authorise the Secretary or any officer of the Board to issue directions to any person to produce before it and allow to be examined and kept by an officer of the Board authorised in this behalf the books, accounts, etc. or to furnish information to such officer.
41. The Board may, for the purpose of collecting any information, particulars or documents which the Board considers necessary in connection with the discharge of its functions under the Act, issue such directions as may be considered necessary.
42. If any such report or information obtained appears to the Board to be insufficient or inadequate, the Board or Secretary or any officer of the Board authorized for the purpose may give directions for further inquiry, report and furnishing of information.
43. The Board may direct such incidental, consequential and supplemental matters be attended to, which may be considered relevant in connection with the above.
44. In connection with the discharge of the above functions, the Board may, if it thinks fit, direct a notice of inquiry to be issued and proceed with the matter in a manner provided under Chapter II of these regulations.

CHAPTER V

MISCELLANEOUS

45. Continuance of proceeding after death, etc. -

- (1) Where in any proceeding any of the parties to the proceedings dies or is adjudicated as an insolvent or in the case of a company under liquidation or winding-up, the proceedings shall continue with the successors-in-interest, the executor, administrator, receiver, liquidator or other legal representative of the party concerned.
- (2) The Board may, for reasons to be recorded, treat the proceedings as abated in case the Board so directs and dispense with the need to bring the successors-in-interest, etc. on the record of the case.

- (3) In case any person wishes to bring on record the successors-in-interest, etc., the application for the purpose shall be filed within ninety days from the event requiring the successors-in-interest to come on record.

46. Proceedings to be open to public. –

- (1) The proceedings before the Board shall be open to the public:

Provided that the Board may, if it thinks fit, and for reason to be recorded in writing, order at any stage of the proceedings of any particular case that the public generally or any particular person or group of persons shall have restricted access.

- (2) Whoever intentionally gives false evidence in any of the proceedings of the Board or fabricates false evidence for the purpose of being used in any of the proceedings shall be punishable in accordance with Section 193 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (45 of 1860).
- (3) Whoever intentionally offers any insult or causes any interruption in any of the proceedings of the Board shall be punishable in accordance with Section 228 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (45 of 1860).

47. Publication of petition or complaint. -

- (1) Where any application, petition or complaint, or other matter is required to be published under the Act or these regulations or as per the directions of the Board, it shall, unless the Board otherwise orders or the Act or regulations otherwise provide, be published not less than seven days before the date fixed for hearing.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided, such publication shall give a heading describing the subject matter in brief.
- (3) Such publication to be published shall be approved by the officer of the Board authorized for the purpose.

48. Inspection of records and confidentiality. –

- (1) Records of the Board except those parts which for reasons specified by the Board are confidential or privileged, shall be open to inspection by all, subject to complying with the terms as the Board may direct from time to time including in regard to time, place and manner of inspection and payment of fee.
- (2) The Board may, on such terms and conditions as it considers appropriate, provide for the supply of certified copies of the documents and papers available with the Board to any person.
- (3) The Board may, by order, direct that any information, documents and other papers and materials produced before the Board or any of its officers, consultants, representatives or otherwise which may be, or come into, their possession or custody, shall be confidential or privileged and shall not be available for inspection or supply of copies, and the Board may also direct that such documents, papers or materials shall not be used in any manner except as specifically authorized by the Board.

49. Issue of orders and directions on procedures.- Subject to the provisions of the Act and these regulations, the Board may, from time to time, issue orders and directions in regard to the implementation of the regulations and procedure to be followed and various matters which the Board has been empowered by these regulations to specify or direct.
50. Saving of inherent power of the Board. – Nothing in these regulations shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect the inherent power of the Board to make such orders as may be necessary for ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of the process of the Board.
51. Nothing in these regulations shall bar the Board from adopting in conformity the provisions of the Act, a procedure, which is at variance with any of the provision of these regulations, if the Board in view of the special circumstances of a matter or class of matters and for reasons to be recorded in writing, deems it necessary or expedient for dealing with such matter or class of matters.
52. Nothing in these regulations shall, expressly or impliedly, bar the Board to deal with any matter or exercise any power under the Act for which no regulation have been framed, and the Board may deal with such matters, powers and functions in a manner it thinks fit.
53. General power to amend. - The Board may, at any time and on such terms as to costs or otherwise, as it may think fit, amend any defect or error in any proceeding before it, and all necessary amendments shall be made for the purpose of determining the real question or issue arising in the proceedings.
54. Power to remove difficulties. – If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any of the provisions of these regulations, the Board may, by general or special order, do anything not being inconsistent with the provisions of the Act, which appears to it to be necessary or expedient for the purpose or removing difficulties.
55. Extension or abridgment of time prescribed. – Subject to the provision of the Act, the time prescribed by these regulations or by order of the Board for doing any act may be extended (whether it has already expired or not) or abridged for sufficient reason by order of the Board.
56. Effect of non-compliance. - Failure to comply with any requirement of these regulations shall not invalidate any proceeding merely by reason of such failure unless the Board is of the view that such failure has resulted in miscarriage of justice.
57. Costs -

- (1) Subject to such conditions and limitation as may be directed by the Board, the cost of, and incidental to, all proceedings shall be awarded at the discretion of the Board and the Board shall have full power to determine by whom or out of what funds and to what extent such costs are to be paid and give all necessary directions for the aforesaid purposes.
- (2) The costs shall be paid within thirty days from the date of the order or within such time as the Board may, by order, direct.

58. Enforcement of orders passed by the Board. - The Secretary shall ensure enforcement and compliance with the orders passed by the Board, by the persons concerned in accordance with the provisions of the Act and regulations and if necessary, may seek the orders of the Board for directions.
